Advanced Training for Facilitators and Mediators

With Dr. Mark Umbreit

Beyond Technique: A Mindfulness-Based Approach to Restorative Justice Dialogue

February 16, 2018  Friday (9am – 5pm) Cost: $100

St. Anthony Park Lutheran Church, St. Paul, MN
(near 280 on 2323 Como Avenue)

25% discount for multiple registrations from one organization.

All registrations can be done online through the center’s webpage.

Dr. Mark Umbreit, founding director of the Center for Restorative Justice & Peacemaking, introduced, practiced and has taught a mindfulness-based approach to mediation and dialogue since the early 90's. He applied this approach to some of the first victim offender dialogues in homicide cases in a number of states and developed the first such training in 1995.

For more info on registration and lodging, contact us at rjp@umn.edu or call 612-624-4923.

Detailed information about the workshop can be found at http://www.cehd.umn.edu/ssw/rjp/

Restorative facilitation is a way of being more than it is a way of doing.